INTRODUCTION

DAWN

Decentralized.Autonomous.World.Network

PRESENT SITUATION

In this “dawn” of an unprecedented crossroads in human history, we are impacted by the revelation, that the thriving of humanity, future generations and planet Earth is critically dependent upon our urgent action now. The World Dawn Confederation (TWDC) represents a comprehensive vision of immense proportions, conceived and channeled into manifestation in 1990. Many years of solitary reflection and selective decision making have birthed a highly executable plan, poised for decisive action in this present time. TWDC’s intent remains consistent, emphasizing healing, righting imbalances and awakening humanity to its highest potential. Dawn’s concepts have matured, strengthened and re-born, into a decisive undertaking, as we have moved into a global confluence of amplified universal energies, predicted by the Ancients and affirmed by modern science.

In recent years individuals and organizations with similar vision have been attracted to and merged with Dawn’s blueprint (with more to come), developing a network that aligns with our original purpose and design. The World Dawn Confederation is a vast decentralized international alliance of shared vision, seeded around the world, ensuring success for all. Our alliance now extends a heartfelt invitation to new emerging funding resources, technologies, individuals and humanitarian organizations, to align with us to more powerfully support and finance a ‘new world’ founded in human brilliance, passion, vision and well being for all. The World Dawn Confederation integrates a new glorious paradigm of humanity’s rapid evolutionary awakening to a more resilient and peaceful world.

Art has always imitated reality. If you could retreat to some higher ground to gain perspective on human affairs, you would see in your global economy a living sculpture of planetary significance. Like no art before, it is even now leading you and your race from beneath the illusions of a fading order to a new understanding of yourselves and the world.

In the dawning light of this new millennium, the frame work surrounding human affairs can be seen as a chessboard of sorts, each global interest represented by a piece on the board. Each piece, each player, as this new era dawns, is possessed with access to unlimited information. And each knows that using that information intelligently is the key to success. Institutionally invested human interests have at their disposal not merely computer technology to help them organize their information more accurately but also a rising flood of information itself, unprecedented in the history of nations.

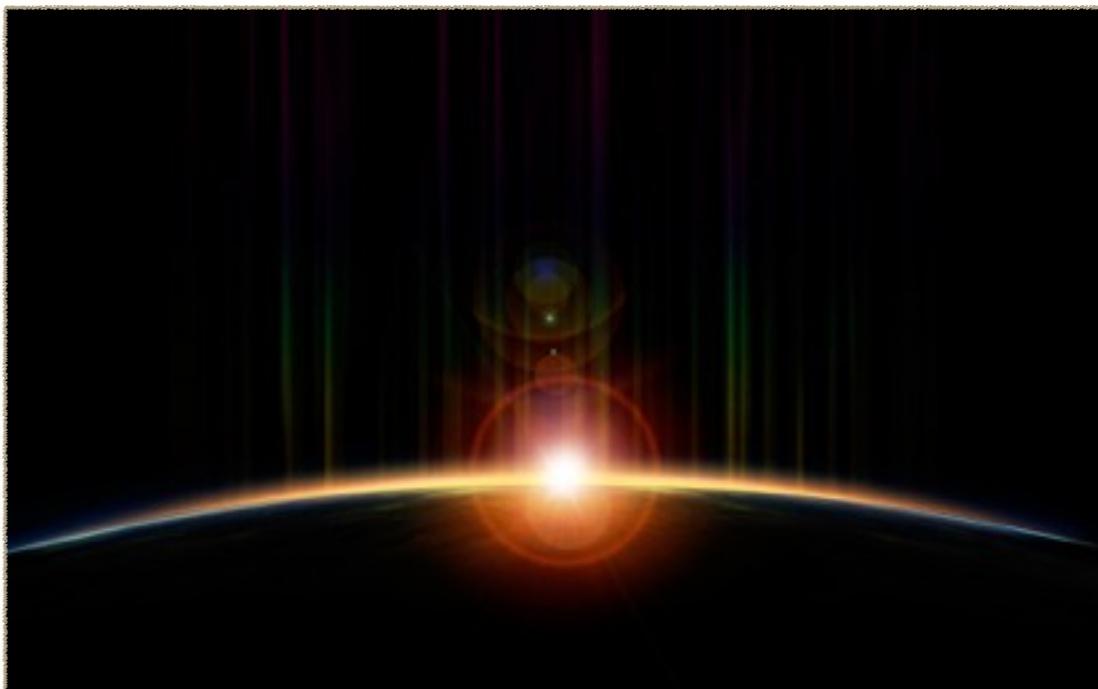

A child today with a Christmas computer has more information at her disposal than the Vatican library had at the height of the Renaissance. That same child, for the cost of a phone call, can tap data retention systems and in seconds retrieve information that would have been beyond the reach of the U.S. Defense Department as recently as the close of World War II.

Yet new information technology merely reflects the field of intelligence that is growing upon the earth. It does not cause it. The leaves and branches of the vine reflect an inner genetic design, yet they are neither its architect nor its cause.

There is no breakthrough in information processing that does not have its corresponding realization in human consciousness. And always, the realization appears first. What is tangible appears only after its potential has been observed in human awareness and described in some communicable form. It is possible, therefore, to anticipate coming changes in any human field by monitoring the insights that are finding their way into expression at the creative edge of human thought.

Because of the revolutionary leaps in understanding that have occurred in recent decade's in the fields of international diplomacy, ecology, relationship training, sociology, and economics, to name just a few, the fact of humans' interdependence with one another and with the earth has now become widely acknowledged. As the implications of this new awareness of interdependence continue to manifest politically, the inevitable result is only a matter of time. The fear-centered dynasties that have dominated historical peoples are facing an increasingly well-defined choice: fundamental revaluation and healthy change or imminent collapse.

In nations that recognize this, nations whose leaders have already drawn this conclusion from the direction and momentum of their histories, another conclusion also begins to suggest itself. Unthinkable at first, it is rejected. But it keeps bubbling up again and again. And each time it reappears, the cultural objections are fewer and less convincing than before. What a few great leaders like Gandhi and Martin Luther King saw decades ago is now being realized by many world leaders: This whole process, this process of fear-centered social orders moving inexorably toward extinction, is intentional. It is not happenstance, history has been designed with this particular conclusion in mind.

Historical Mythos Reference

References to a New Dawning Era, a Golden Age characterized by harmony, stability and prosperity, do not just belong to the Native Americans, but can be found in myths and legends from all over the world. It is known as Chryson Genos in Greek mythology, the Kali yuga in Vedic and Hindu culture, gullaldr in Norse mythology, and the Warriors of the Rainbow or People of the Dawn Prophecy in Hopi, Zuni, Cherokee and many other First Nations. One aspect that is common among many legends of the Golden era is the return of beings or gods that will aid in the restoration of the Earth.

The Rainbow prophecy, refers to the keepers of the legends, rituals, and other myths that will be needed when the time comes to restore the health on Earth. It is believed that these legendary beings will return on a day of awakening, when all people will unite and create a new world of justice, peace and freedom, and they will be named the 'Warriors of the Rainbow'. They will reteach the values and the knowledge that has been lost in time, demonstrating how to have wisdom and extra-perception, and how unity, harmony and love is the only way forward. The rainbow reference relates to the different colors of the original people:

"At the beginning of this cycle of time, long ago, the Great Spirit came down and He made an appearance and He gathered the peoples of this earth together, they say on an island which is now beneath the water, and He said to the human beings, "I'm going to send you to four directions and over time I'm going to change you to four colors, but I'm going to give you some teachings and you will call these the Original Teachings and when you come back together with each other you will share these so that you can live and have peace on earth, and a great civilization will come about."

Prophecy as told by Lee Brown of the Salish Tribe at the 1986 Continental Indigenous Council, Alaska.

“There will come a day when people of all races, colors, and creeds will put aside their differences. They will come together in love, joining hands in unification, to heal the Earth and all Her children. They will move over the Earth like a great Whirling Rainbow, bringing peace, understanding and healing everywhere they go. Many creatures thought to be extinct or mythical will resurface at this time; the great trees that perished will return almost overnight. All living things will flourish, drawing sustenance from the breast of our Mother, the Earth.”

The great spiritual Teachers who walked the Earth and taught the basics of the truths of the Whirling Rainbow Prophecy will return and walk amongst us once more, sharing their power and understanding with all. We will learn how to see and hear in a sacred manner. Men and women will be equals in the way Creator intended them to be; all children will be safe anywhere they want to go. Elders will be respected and valued for their contributions to life. Their wisdom will be sought out. The whole Human race will be called The People and there will be no more war, sickness or hunger forever.”

Navajo-Hopi Prophecy of the Whirling Rainbow

“In the time of the Seventh Fire, a New People would emerge. They would retrace their steps to find the wisdom that was left by the side of the trail long ago. Their steps would take them to the elders, who they would ask to guide them on their journey. If the New People remain strong in their quest, the sacred drum will again sound its voice. There will be an awakening of the people, and the sacred fire will again be lit. At this time, the light-skinned race will be given a choice between two roads. One road is the road of greed and technology without wisdom or respect for life. This road represents a rush to destruction. The other road is spirituality, a slower path that includes respect for all living things. If we choose the spiritual path, we can light yet another fire, an Eight Fire, and begin an extended period of Peace and healthy growth.”

Grandfather William Commanda, Circle of All Nations Prophecy of the Seven Fires of the Anishnabe, From Ancient Wampum Belt

VISION & ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE

This Confederation is a fulfillment of prophecy as a sacred alliance of action initiating humanities remembrance, healing and evolution. The collective intention is to Help humanity and individuals to find peace, reevaluate one's life, connect with others and heal the body, mind, heart and spirit. We are coming out of thousands of generations of self-sabotaging, self-serving/ egocentric habits on Planet Earth that left destruction in it's wake and many suffering. It is time to change this paradigm, with assistance of a Global Council, well-administrated projects and programs around the world assisted by human obligation funds, the old will fall away for thriving to become the norm.

As we activate beneficial collective social and ecological action toward all, relying on true abundance of our Planetary Home, many will survive and thrive. This invites sensitivity to an equilateral process, where worthy leadership is established, developing a new heritage for planet Earth, based on intelligent action, self value, cooperative systems and human potential.

DAWN Structure

The World DAWN Confederation INT. (INGO) INTERNATIONAL Humanitarian Logistics & Capital Support

The World Dawn Confederation will be a decentralized autonomous world network organization (DAWN) that protects its alliance members from internal collapse if one of its secretariat organs becomes compromised. A DAWN or DAO is an organization that is run through rules encoded as computer programs called smart contracts. The Alliance Treaties, Manifestos, financial transaction record and Alliance Charters are maintained on a global decentralized blockchain technology. The advent of decentralized autonomous organizations ushers in a new paradigm in organizational structure in which companies can run without any human management and under the control of an incorruptible set of business rules. These rules are encoded in publicly auditable open source software distributed across computers of the alliance members, effortlessly securing the confederation from arbitrary control.

The Confederation Provides Meritocratic Decentralized World Governance, Funding Co-ordination, and Direction for Humanitarian: infrastructure, ecological restoration, and global projects management logistics. Made for the Bringers of the Dawn of a New World of technological expansion and prosperity, Connecting Indigenous Whole Systems Knowledge, Technology, Human Rights and Natural Law.

Chief World Signatories Of Digital Currencies

Seven Chief Alliance Signatories

Representing Seven Sovereign Digital Crypto Currencies that create a confluence of Humanitarian Funding & Financial Management for Alliance Projects.

These chosen digital currencies are channels of secured funding for projects to support the transformation and healing of this planet. These chaotic times demand a non-political, non-religious, universal, economic, ecological, and social reset that includes all cultures and economic strata. The live world debt clock shows the reality that any given nation in the world could collapse in 30 days due to the non publicized debt. In fact, as strong as China's economy appears, it has 1/3 of the global debt. The world economy is based on debt and decrease in return despite the increase in effort, whether it be by the poor or the rich. The time is right for an alliance of genuine digital currencies with no vested interest, with the bandwidth to create a billion Heroes and fund a Billion Humanitarian Projects. There is currently a vetting process underway to decide what the seven crypto currencies shall be. All Crypto Currencies will run on the Bitshares Platform.

BITSHARES Platform

BitShares is a technology supported by next generation entrepreneurs, investors, and developers with a common interest in finding free market solutions by leveraging the power of globally decentralized consensus and decision making. Consensus technology has the power to do for economics what the internet did for information. It can harness the combined power of all humanity to coordinate the discovery and aggregation of real-time knowledge, previously unobtainable. This knowledge can be used to more effectively coordinate the allocation of resources toward their most productive and valuable use.

BitShares looks to extend the innovation of the blockchain to all industries that rely upon the internet to provide their services. Whether its banking, stock exchanges, lotteries, voting, music, auctions or many others, a digital public ledger allows for the creation of distributed autonomous companies (or DACs) that provide better quality services at a fraction of the cost incurred by their more traditional, centralized counterparts.

LYRA

Confederation Real-Time Coordination Platform & Visualizer

“The Song from which Humanity is Played.”

Project Intake and Transparency Vetting Platform.

The Lyra Database platform visualizes the Dawn Confederation allied organizations, providing collaborative allied visual support. Lyra facilitates the empowerment of all international participants, global communities and the environment. The primary goal is to visualize alliance united action in sound instruments and light streams, catalyzing an organic symphony of change.

This visual tool is created to develop, implement, guide, link together and help establish a series of communities and support systems that act as models and demonstrate real world applications for advancing civilization. This is a visual platform comprised of infrastructure and people that seek to find a better way of living, actively pursuing the fundamental components of human civilization. This is a coordinated effort of communities & organizations, regionally & globally towards social & environmental harmony.

Lyra is the name of our AI quantum computer engine, that can handle the bandwidth of dynamically visualizing an alliance data network of humanitarian activity within the Dawn Confederation. Nodes and connecting strings will represent a broad spectrum of interests, displaying their impacts, while through quantum computing simplifying and customizing the process and speed of smart contracts between fellow alliance members. Lyra will be able to through superpositioning, project complex scenarios by imputing the data or desired outcome in joint strategic relationships, helping to solve complex problems towards global harmony.

Chapter 4

GLOBAL CENTERS OF DAWN

We seek to create and facilitate the implementation of evolving stewardship development models, including methodology and practices for community building, educational programming and fostering advancement of consciousness technology. Our focus is on how to link and ground a multitude of digital spaces & physical lands through living systems, the arts, advanced local food production, cultural programs, technology and education together to incubate and experiment with rhythmic planetary synchronized solutions that will benefit urban and rural centers alike with the aim of creating peace in communities of all sizes.

We See each Center as a Generator of Historic Legacy, The Future, Food, Culture; Energy, Partnerships, Art, Music, Education, Community, Wealth, Communication, Sanctuary, and Peace.

We believe a Dawn Center can be a generator of a larger sense of community within a large group of people required to complete the seeded subsidiary projects, and all those that are inspired to take a project of this magnitude to a fulfilled vision. Examples of this can be seen in the Eden Project in the UK, The Gardens By The Bay in Singapore, and Auroville in India.

We Know this can be a creative economic generator that funds the conservation of land, and core community components needed to connect and steward land in a self-determining and sustaining way

An Activator: We are activating communities by creating aligned interests among a diverse group of stakeholders who will participate in creating a landmark model for sustainable urban and rural re-development & stewardship. We can activate these new seeded installations for a new era of resilience and environmental stewardship.

As a Connector: We are connecting global people and synchronizing a network of nodal points modeling exemplary stewardship of all diversity. There is definite strength that comes with connecting brilliant minds across different disciplines and lands. We are connecting a diverse global group of stakeholders and beneficiaries.

A Catalyst: for a movement that facilitates and spearheads resilient self-determining communities. Because we are using agile and open source, our aim is to foster adoption and more specifically contributions and insight, made by the community working to realize this project. We are catalyzing a production of Cultural Creatives on a large scale where a wide audience can participate and become empowered change makers themselves by stewarding one of our mandala installations at their location.

As a Laboratory: Taking the principles and approach one would use in the laboratory environment and applying it to every aspect including design, implementation, and development and maintenance. Every aspect is a learning opportunity. Every extension of the project can be adaptive to new technologies and trends.

An Exemplar Initiative: This template serves as a model for adaptive stewardship of spaces, by gathering some of the brightest minds of our time. They can be connected through our poetic vision, of how mandala focal points can stand to provoke a massive shift. A shift in thinking about the role of collaborative design in community, restoration, and peaceful reconciliation projects. Representing an exemplar model of resiliency in local food production promoting large scale organic food production in urban areas.

CENTERS FOR WELLNESS AND HEALING ARTS

Dawn Project was originally inspired with the cutting edge knowledge of the need to integrate the traditional, scientific and the spiritual in beautiful healing (LIFE) centers which are affordable and meet the needs of the WHOLE person.

The core vision of Dawn is reflective of the status of health, well being, spirituality and education in this new and exciting millennium. Healthcare, as we have known it, is dying. We are in the midst of a major paradigm shift which is profoundly changing the world as we know it today. Healthcare costs have risen at an astounding rate, driven by managed care realities and ever increasing new technologies. All of the money being spent however, has not been able to halt the alarming rise in "diseases" of a new kind, particularly the auto-immune disorders and environmental illnesses, nor the significant rise in anxiety, violence, depression and suicide, evidence of a sickness of the soul.

The average consumer is much better educated, more assertive in what they expect from treatment providers and tired of being required to access service to meet the needs of the body, mind and spirit in numerous, separate locations where they are seen as a depersonalized, paying number only. The consumers of today are demanding a partnership with providers, freedom of choice in healthcare and a centralized, reasonably priced location where all services for the body, mind and spirit may be accessed. They are also seeking the soothing, nurturing setting, a reduction in life stress and a way to access the link that has been missing with modern medicine, i.e. a way back to a solid connection with the community, the earth and the Divine. Disappointed with western medicine, over 52% of consumers this year accessed alternative healers rather than traditional medicine. The medical community has had no choice but to take heed.

Chapter 6

CENTERS FOR THE CREATIVE ARTS

The primary goal of these centers is to promote and support the creation, development, understanding and spread of works of art, music, writing, sculpture, architecture and other creative arts. The Centers will help the means to this goal by:

1. Providing basic life supports (food and shelter), freedom from everyday concerns, space, supplies and working facilities for limited periods of time to 25-100 recognized, nominated and approved individuals, gifted in one or more of these areas, who could not otherwise utilize and develop their expertise.
2. Providing scholarships to worthy individuals.
3. Developing children's centers and summer camp to promote education in and understanding of the arts.
4. Providing space and facilities to support national and international exchange of ideas in the arts.

The Centers are committed to the belief that national and international meetings of like minded individuals will lead to further understanding of the fact that all are one, will promote more open communication, trust and world peace.

1000 Mandalas of Peace

Centers For the Creative Arts

Large Mandala art installation platforms that create hybrid conservation sanctuaries for the arts, that seed progressive education centers, connected to the stewardship of significant lands & historic spaces while holding the environment sacred within community. These centers will facilitate the implementation of evolving stewardship development models, including methodology and practices for community building, educational programming and fostering advancement of consciousness technology. Our focus is on how to link a multitude of spaces & lands through living systems, cultural programs and technology together to incubate and experiment with rhythmic planetary synchronized solutions that will benefit urban and rural centers with the aim of creating peace in communities of all sizes. As we encourage and nourish the creative spirit, and promote creativity as a spiritual practice, we will promote the bigger picture of a connected world, one that honors the foundational principles and creativity of nature. From this platform we will utilize the transformative power of art to awaken human potential.

Urban / Vertical Farm Mandalas

Planting Urban Mandalas in Sprawling Urban environments within regions such as Asia can spearhead Vertical Farms to promote city food security and community solidarity. This greening of cities can work through mega crowd sourced/funded projects partnered with other NGOs. The Mandala can act as a focus point for action while at the same time partner with transcendental meditation groups reducing crime rates using the Maharishi Effect.

First Nation Mandalas

Healing post colonialism & slavery scars. Empowering First Nation Communities out of poverty through economic development and off grid sustainability. Spearhead cultural preservation and reparations by helping nations fund land acquisition of historic lost sacred lands.

Healing War Mandalas

In War torn countries these can help build peace between lines where remnants of civil war can have space to heal and symbolize that healing through art.

Rainforest Tribal Conservation Mandalas

Every Mandala will have the same center symbolically uniting them together. When multiple people stand it the center in different locations through meditation a link can be formed.

Mandala Grid Network

Mandala Locations will create geometric line-ups using lay lines and the natural geometry of place to maximize connections between mandala communities Supporting the formation of a global community land trust Alliance partnered with other NGOs.

The Maharishi Effect

When Groups synchronize their efforts in global communal events such as film festivals and global transcendental meditations this can activate the Global Maharishi Effect.

CENTERS FOR EDUCATION & RESEARCH

The primary goal of the Division of Education and Humanitarian Efforts is to provide personal, social and environmental awareness. The Confederation strongly supports and advocates for ongoing education, healing and improved communication in all areas of life. Of particular concern are the following: Environmental awareness and the healing of the earth; racial and cultural awareness, specific to individual strengths, gifts and uniqueness towards the reduction of fear, prejudice and hatred; nonviolence and peace efforts and the reintegration of the body, mind and spirit.

Major emphasis is also placed on the belief that a healthy society can be recognized by the degree of respect for and ongoing support it shows for the arts and science. Beyond all else, they are the primary language of the universe. They provide a common meeting ground for like minded individuals from all walks of life, beyond politics and differing personal, racial and national philosophies. They recognize a brotherhood of man united in a search for beauty and truth. They thereby provide a base from which to engender understanding of and basic respect for one another in our own uniqueness. They foster mutual effort, thereby encouraging open and ongoing communication, negotiation and resolution of any issue in a non-threatening atmosphere.

The Centers for Education will sponsor seminars, courses and workshops in a variety of subject matters including philosophy, psychology, communications, stress management, ecology, health, systems integration, personal and spiritual development, Indian Oriental arts, holistic health, the arts, humanities and sciences.

The pivotal point of the Centers will be composed of a hub which is designed to operate as a "think tank".

CLOSING STATEMENTS

For millennia, successive waves of consciousness have come to this planet to assist humankind's processes of historical education. But the influx of consciousness that rides upon this current wave is more powerful than any that came before.

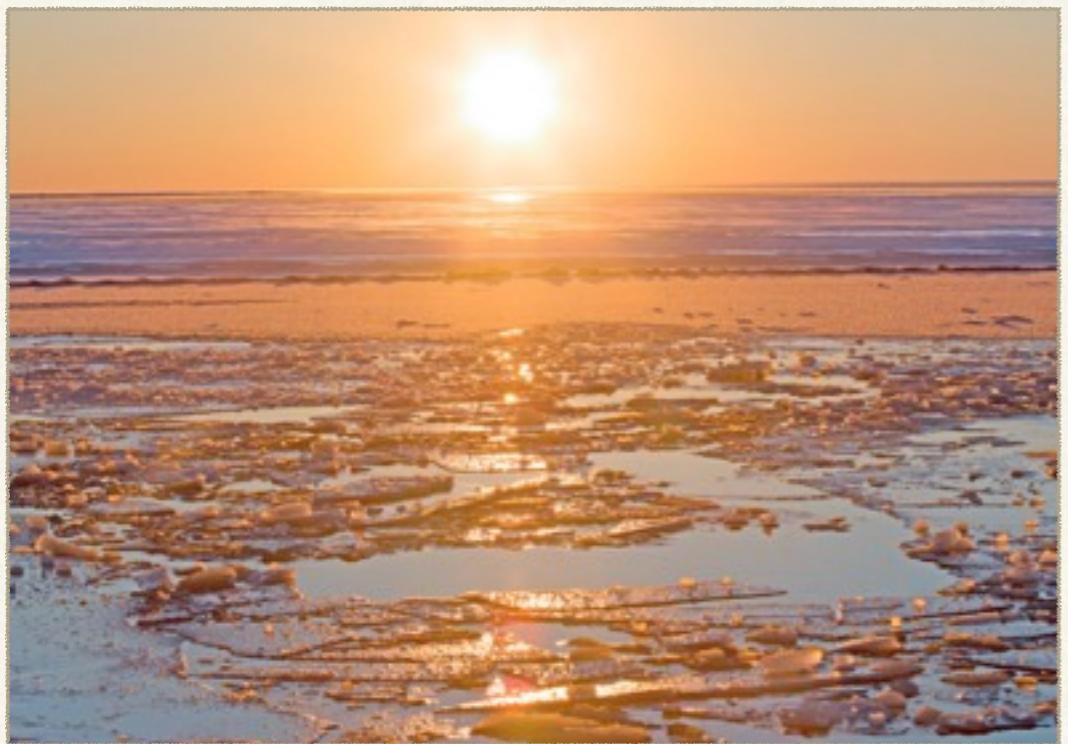

The peoples of the earth have glimpsed its coming and viewed it through the distorting filters of their indigenous terms and labels, yet the event itself is larger than any human system of understanding, broader than any cultural description.

Trust in the wisdom that designed the intricacies of the human body and the exquisite ordering of the galaxies, and these next years will unfold their petals before you like a flower opening to the sun rays of that new and brighter day. Move whole- heartedly beyond historically manufactured thought into the thought currents of the Universal Intelligence that is awakening in this planetary sphere.

Remain in your walk, your station, especially if it touches the government of a nation. Do not leave your work. Stay. Bring light into your world. Do your work with greater consciousness and you will naturally rise in your profession, even as the sun of a dawning consciousness rises in the people around you. Do not wait for yourself or the world to change. Accept today. Harvest the fullness of its promise. This is all you can do, yet it is all that needs to be done.

Help us to minimize the disruption of terrestrial systems of production and distribution, while working to transform them incrementally, as we have been transforming other and older structures these centuries past.

The old orders are turning away from fear for their own interests they are turning away from manipulation and exploitation. They are discovering satisfying new structures in service, education, healing. In the greater effectiveness of these new structures they are finding the prosperity and success that eluded them when their motives were not in the interests of all.

You who are designed to work within the present systems of human power are the eyes that look forth from the towers of the knights and pawns, castles and bishops on the chessboard. You are the lights of those worlds. Do not abandon your posts or it may seem to the subjects of those powers that they too are abandoned. Too rapid a breakdown of production or distribution would deprive them of the time they need to perceive their state for what it is. Those who have been programmed to accept a feudal order may need your presence and a little time to awaken.

All about the chessboard of interacting global interests you are building a new and benign environment. Landscapes , caretakers in the universal garden of magnificence, moving more freely than kings and queens, more mobile than knights of old, you note that the chessboard and its historical players intrude upon but one small corner of the grounds. You are like flowers and herbs, like trees growing beneath and around the edges of the board, even as others are like grasses springing up within. The board itself grows annually more illumined, spiraling upward, outward as the millennium dawns, beyond its two-dimensional symbolism, its sixty-four squares flowing into the sixty-four hexa-grams of the I Ching, the sixty-four nucleotides of the genetic code, spiraling, swirling, each luminous square animated, multi-dimensional, alive.

No system of government in the historical condition has been perfect, but many systems, often ideologically quite different, contain within them the seeds of perfection.

Those who look with a deeper vision see familiar figures moving beneath the platforms and behind the stage props. Listening for the truth amidst the surface clamor, they hear the angelic inspirations behind socialism and know they are the same voices that inspire democracy, the same voices that have always encouraged people to break the yokes of tyranny, politically and in the more subtle government of the soul. Your world has moved through much during this most recent cycle of education, but do not forget: Even during historical times the greatest movements have been not political, but spiritual.

We all hold a piece of this blue print of Dawn seeded into individuals from all over the planet and from this point forward, a merger of these individuals of similar vision is necessary to completely develop it into existence. We also need talented coders and digital engineers to finish the digital infrastructure.
